

NAMIBIA A PLACE TO BREATHE

A FLY-IN SAFARI

THE LUXURY OF SPACE

Ready to dive into one of Africa's most mesmerising safari destinations?

Namibia is a vast, sun-drenched paradise where rolling dunes, rugged mountains and shimmering deserts come alive.

Whether you're exploring the towering red sands of Sossusvlei, tracking wildlife in Etosha National Park or marvelling at the desolate beauty of the Skeleton Coast, a Namibia Safari offers an adventure like no other.

7 DAYS OF LUXURY & WILDERNESS

THE OLDEST DESERT IN THE WORLD

Your Namibia luxury safari will begin by heading to the Namib Desert; a great sand sea in Sossusvlei. The only true African desert south of the equator. Then you'll fly high along the Skeleton Coast to Swakopmund, a town which seems to have landed here. Incongruous in its setting, an isolated coastal town. Next stop, the gemstone beaches of Mowe Bay before you have a complete change of gear: it's Etosha time. Wildlife and game viewing galore. Grab your khakis, camera and binoculars.

KNOW MORE...

Hi There,

Namibia... the stories it could tell.

Start your luxurious Namibia safari with a two-night fly-in package to the Namib Desert, the oldest desert on Earth, which has remained arid for 15 million years. It is hard to believe that something can be so old.

The tales that can be told. And if that wasn't enough, just glancing up at the serene beauty and marvel at one of the darkest night skies on Earth. The silence is so loud, you actually hear it.

Next stop: the Skeleton Coast. From the air, it might seem idyllic - waves gently lapping against the shore, majestic dunes stretching into the horizon. Yet, on the ground, the reality is starkly different. The Skeleton Coast National Park is a realm of clay castles, haunting shipwrecks, and thriving seal colonies.

Etosha, meaning 'Great White Place,' is characterised by its vast mineral pan. The beauty of Etosha is that you don't have to search far for wildlife; they come to you. With over 20,000 square kilometres to explore, simply park by a waterhole and watch as lions, elephants, rhinos, cheetahs, wildebeests, and leopards come to quench their thirst.

Namibia is a destination that is beyond special - and if you enjoy open spaces, quiet moments and calmness, then consider Namibia. This itinerary can be arranged as a solo traveller, or a couple, even a family. We do need to limit the number of travellers to five, due to the fly-in charter.

How, does a trip get better than this... ?

Warm Regards

Colleen
