

THE LEGACY TOUR

A SPECIAL INTEREST
SMALL-GROUP
TOUR

SOUTH AFRICA...

The history of South Africa can be traced right back to the 4th Century with the San Khoikhoi people. Jump ahead, and we have Bartholomeu Dias who was the first European traveller to round the tip of Africa in the 1480's. In 1652, Jan van Riebeeck, representing the Dutch East India Company, established the Cape Colony at Table Bay. In 1795, British forces seize Cape Colony from the Netherlands. We then start hearing a famous name, still ringing true today, Shaka Zulu, who founded and expanded the mighty Zulu empire.

This is a country that people have fought for, people have loved, people have died for. The history is rich and deep. And then we had Rolihlahla Mandela - born on the 18th July 1918. He received the name 'Nelson' on his first day of primary school.

The Legacy Tour offers a special interest curated itinerary. It is a "Small-Group" tour blending together the life of Nelson Mandela, whilst exploring, this amazing country.

With a maximum of eight travellers, we really do mean small...

We take care of all the detail, so all you have to do is sit back and immerse yourself.

UBUNTU

There is a special word in South Africa - it is Ubuntu.
"I am because you are"

Because our small-groups are small and exclusive, we can focus on the destination, special treasures and most of all... the people - this is where you will experience the true South Africa and might just see a bit of the 'Madiba' magic.

9 NIGHTS OF EXPERIENCES AND ADVENTURE

A little hint...

Day 1 - 4

Johannesburg, the city of Gold.

It is here we kick-start this amazing adventure.

With a private guide we take you to Soweto and visit the homes of Nelson Mandela and another great Elder, the late Desmond Tutu. Take a walk down the famous Vilakazi street and feel the vibe of Soweto. You will learn a little more at the Apartheid Museum and visit Constitution Hill and the inner city of Johannesburg. Some of the highlights include dinner with a special guest who worked with Nelson Mandela and a luncheon on an African farm.

Days 5 - 6

This is all about going on safari.

Watch the bush come to life as you head out at sunrise in an open 4x4 vehicle on a morning drive; hear the call of a hyena, or catch a glimpse of a leopard and watch elephant herds tumble down to the watering hole.

Sundowners precede boma dinners around a fire, sharing stories, listening to the sound of the bush at night and eagerly anticipating the next morning to be out there again.

Memories forever.

and we cont...

Days 7 - 9

And now for Cape Town.

A melting pot of cultures, languages and people. The city is often referred to as the most 'southern tip of Europe' and it is easy to see why.

Quite simply, Cape Town is fabulous !

A foodies delight, designer shopping malls, magical sunsets and gorgeous beaches. It is here that we go out for dinner in local eateries, visit one of the original Wine Farms dating back to the 1600s for a wine pairing, take a drive to Cape Point, where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet and of course, stop for numerous photo opportunities.

Cape Town has a very real connection to Nelson Mandela. He spent his 27 years imprisoned here. So we go from his incarceration days on Robben Island to the Houses of Parliament, where he presided as President in 1994. On our last night, we have dinner with a guest speaker who brings the story of South Africa together.

KNOW MORE...

Hello Traveller

Being based in the Cape and having spent the past 20 years in travel, my team and I are well placed to introduce you to South Africa and Madiba's Land. The people, the energy, the history; all blend together to make this an amazing country.

Ask any South African about Nelson Mandela and they will be sure to smile.

Yes, he was instrumental in bringing down an oppressive government and installing democracy. And Yes, he received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993 and Yes, he was our first black president, elected in 1994. But, he did so much more; he gave hope, he inspired, he cared and he was tough. You often hear about the "Madiba magic" and it is true - it existed.

I have curated this small-group tour to give you some insight into this country. It is not about ticking off a visit to Robben Island, or the Big Five on safari - but rather immersing yourself for a few days and learning about a Great Statesman, the history of the country and spending time with South Africans, sitting down at 'their' dinner table.

This is a special tour and it is sprinkled with visiting local eateries, exploring wine farms, enjoying sundowners on Table Mountain and of course, no trip to Africa is complete, without going on safari.

We are there with you and take away all the unknown factors of visiting a new destination, right from your airport chauffeur, to where you sleep at night and dinner's out with new found friends. From the time you arrive in South Africa, we will guide you through with VIP access, front row seats and share the stories and show you South Africa.

We invite you to get intouch with us, learn a little more about this very special "Legacy Small-Group Tour".

Looking forward to meeting you.

Warm Regards

Colleen
